

How to Apply by Mail

Outstation applicants may send their applications for passport/consular service by certified/registered/express mail. These instructions are in addition to instructions/requirements of documents for various services given separately. Applicants, therefore, should correlate/comply with both sets of instructions before sending the applications by mail.

- Fee should be paid by Money Order/Bank Draft/Certified check in the name of the Consulate General of India, New York. Cash or personal checks are not accepted.
- Postage:
For return by Express Mail (with tracking number): Please enclose a self-addressed Express Mail envelope with minimum postage of $18.30. Please write Consulate's address in the Sender's column and your own name, address and telephone number in the recipient's column. It is important to write clearly and firmly so that both the addresses are printed on all 4 foils of the return mailing label. An example of correctly filled return mailing label is placed below:

Incomplete / False Information

Application forms should be filled in fully, legibly (in BLOCK CAPITAL LETTERS) and accurately. Misrepresentation of the facts may result in the denial of passport/consular service. Applications received with incomplete details could remain unprocessed, causing unnecessary delays.

Fees, once received, shall not be refunded, even if the passport application was withdrawn or if the Consular service could not be rendered for any reason by the Consulate.

The Consulate reserves the right of seeking additional documents or a personal interview with the applicant if so required.

The Consulate General of India, New York, neither recognizes nor deals with any agent for consular services. Only collection of visa applications is being done by M/s. Travisa Outsourcing Inc.
